The revised fee structure has minimal impact on regular users and increases revenue from one-time larger weekend events. Instead of combining fees and offering a discount, customers will “stack” time blocks and room fees depending on their needs. Benefits of the revised fee structure include:

- * Simplified fee structure making it easier for customers and staff to follow
- * Increases revenues from weddings and larger events
- * Eliminates discounts for reserving multiple time blocks and multiple rooms in one reservation
- * Provides minimal rate increase per room
