5. FURTHER DISCUSSIONS ON PROPOSAL FOR OFFICE OF RESIDENT ENGAGEMENT

Alder Kemble updated the group on discussions with some staff members on the proposal, which was generally received positively. The Director of the Department of Planning, Community and Economic Development said she thought it would be a good idea, and it impacts some employees in that Department.

Castañeda discussed some concerns of city staff brought to his attention that would not be addressed by ORECO. The subcommittee discussed whether it would be a good idea to ask for input from staff to committees, with some concern that staff might be reluctant to testify in public. After discussion, the subcommittee decided to bring up the issue of staff input at the full TFOGS meeting on Feb. 6.

The subcommittee agreed to make several changes to the latest ORECO draft:

1. An additional function would be language access.
2. Language access will be added to the functions of the Office.
3. Language will be added to indicate this is an independent office with a single person as head of the Office, to be a CG-21 employee.
4. The draft name should be changed to Office of Resident Engagement and Neighborhood Support.

Staff will make those changes and circulate a revised draft.
