The Commission discussed and asked questions to artist Jenie Gao and City staff about the recommendation and proposed options to move forward with this project. Staff will provide regular updates to Commission.

A motion was made by Luke, seconded by Clifton, to Approve Jenie Gao (the selected artist for the Metro transit percent for art project) to work with City staff and architects to redesign the selected mural. The artist's redesign must maintain the initial intent, remain a painted mural to be installed on the new facade, and try to keep the scale of the original design along the facade. City staff will pay Jenie Gao $9,975 from the authorized budget for an updated scope that will included the redesign and updated budget.
