Title
Madison Bike Polo Fee Modification

Body
Madison Parks and Madison Bike Polo (MBP) are mutually interested in increasing recreational biking opportunities in Madison Parks. MBP has been playing at Reynolds Park on the rooftop courts of the Water Utility Building, referred to as the “Thunderdome,” since 2008 and has continued to develop new players and grow the sport in the Madison area. MBP has been a good partner in activating the space to help deter negative activities at Reynolds Park and working with Parks staff for site improvements. Madison Parks and Madison Bike Polo agree to the fee modification’s terms.
