Body

WHEREAS, the City IT Media Team has an on premise television production studio (the Studio) that includes manual and automated cameras and other audio and video equipment; and

WHEREAS, WYOU desires to use the Studio to create community programming, conduct training for WYOU producers, and recruit members interested in this type of production, with the goal of increasing interest and involvement with WYOU as they search for their own studio and related facilities; and

WHEREAS, the City has been a supporter of WYOU's outreach to the community and the community programs it produces and desires to allow WYOU to use the Studio free of charge at times that do not conflict with the City's use of the Studio and do not cause any City staff to incur any overtime; and
