Title

Amending Sections 12.325 and 1.08(3)(a) of the Madison General Ordinances to remove references to the purpose for approaching a vehicle and making it illegal to approach the front or side of a vehicle in operation on the highway for any purpose.

Body

DRAFTER'S ANALYSIS: Current Sec. 12.325 prohibits solicitation on the highway. The ordinance is intended as a safety measure, but the reference to soliciting makes it suspect due to recent court rulings on panhandling. In light of recent court rulings striking down panhandling ordinances (see City Attorney Opinion of January 27, 2016, attached in Legistar), this ordinance must be changed.

This amendment removes all references to the purpose for approaching the vehicle. Instead, as a safety measure, it prohibits being or entering upon a highway and approaching the front or side of a vehicle while that vehicle is in operation. This prohibition would apply to motor vehicles and other vehicles such as bicycles, while they are in operation. This protects the operator from distractions that might lead to vehicle accidents, injuring those on the highway or in the vehicle, and protects individuals approaching vehicles. Exceptions are made for law enforcement, rescue activities, and for persons using the safety zone (crosswalk) to cross the street or persons on the sidewalk. The exception for activities authorized by a Street Use Permit is being deleted because the prohibitions and exceptions of this ordinance, as amended, will apply equally to anyone wishing to approach a vehicle.

The Common Council of the City of Madison do hereby ordain as follows:

1. Section 12.325 entitled "Solicitation on Highway Prohibited" of the Madison General Ordinances is amended to read as follows:
