Barbara Dimick, Director of the Library
Madison Central Library
201 W. Mifflin Street
Madison, WI 53703

Dear Ms. Dimick:

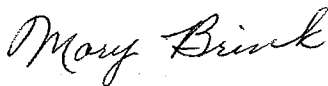

Each year I bring two groups of high school seniors to the downtown library to do extensive research for a comprehensive term paper. This generally takes place at the end of February and the middle of March.

Every year for many years your staff has treated my students with great respect and has often gone out of their way to accommodate the students' needs. They have reserved computers for us and have more than willingly answered students' questions. This year one of your librarians went out of her way to introduce us to the Nexis Lexis, which you had just purchased and which the students found very useful.

The students and I appreciate all of the respect we are given and the manner in which your staff assists students. These attributes make the research experience a positive one for the students and for me, and they reinforce the students' ability to be serious, independent researchers.

The second semester for me always gets so busy that I rarely take the time to thank you; however, I do not want to let another year go by without expressing my gratitude. Thank you for all that you and your staff do for the students and for education.

Yours truly,

Mary Brink
English teacher
