

Dear Loyal Sponsor,

The Home Buyer's Round Table of Dane County (HBRT) is a collaboration of housing industry representatives that promote homeownership through education and counseling to low and moderate income families. We believe homeownership will increase family stability and financial security; stabilize and strengthen communities and neighborhoods; and generate jobs and stimulate economic growth.

We have continually provided first time home buyers with the education they need for a great start in home ownership since 1997. However, without the assistance of our sponsors, this important education would not be available.

We need your help.
