Something to think about - what else could we do? Please do not reply all as this will be on a future agenda

DRAFT RULES FOR MEETINGS

- Speakers can not speak more than 10 minutes on an agenda item.
- Speakers are limited to speaking twice on any motion.
- Chair will use Robert's Rules of Order strictly, disallowing people who are out of order. No one speaks without raising their hand and being recognized by the chair. You will be muted if you are not recognized.
- People must write their motions and send/email to the chair and staff to be shared on the screen.

Yes, be kind. AND assume good intentions.

Questions are not criticisms, they are simply requests for information in a world where information is in short supply and often incorrect.
