

May 2010 Administrative Report:
MAC highlights since April 19, 2010:

April 21, 2010 – Cultural Plan Steering Committee meeting.

April 26-29, 2010 – Lorna Jordan in Town

Highlights include – Breakfast meeting with Marsha Rummel at Lazy Janes, Two hour Madison public art tour with Ray Harmon, 3 hour bike tour of East Rail Corridor & parks with Bill Barker, met with various stakeholders and team members.

April 20, 2010 – Arts Institute 2010 Awards in the Creative Arts at the Arts Lofts, Former MAC Chair Michael Bridgeman was honored, Connie Kilmark and John Nicholas Schweitzer in attendance.

May 3, 2010 – Mrs. Carol Krazmanic’s Schenk Elementary School Party celebrating their research on the Statue of Liberty and their successful pocket change drive to raise money for the sculptures restoration (including $9 from Senator Feingold).

May 5, 2010 – The Art of Lichtner and Grotenrath--A lecture on the work of these two beloved Wisconsin artists, presented by local art conservationist Tony Rajer, took place at the Madison Central Library

May 10, 2010 – NEA Mayor’s Institute of City Design Grant Deadline

Zoning Code Update: City staff members are putting together a series of memos that include all the recommendations they have received from various City committees and commissions. The Plan Commission will review those recommendations in May. Public hearings will occur after the Plan commission gets through their review.

Cultural Plan Update: Data collection will proceed throughout the month

Lisa Link Peace Park Update: Artist Jill Sebastian received final approval for the writing on her forms.

NEA Grant Deadline May 10, 2010

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Public Lecture --Lorna Jordan, Design Team Artist for Central Park
An Introduction, Presentation, & Conversation
Monday night, May 17, 2010, 6:00pm Goodman Neighborhood Center

ALL MEMBERS

Tuesday, June 8, 2010' 5:00 pm, Room LL 110