Brief Narrative:

In 2018 The volunteer-run Central Park Sessions will be in its 5th season and will feature seven nights of free music mostly in the first three weeks of August in a Wednesday and Thursday paired format from 5 to 10 pm. The concert series will have a seventh stand-alone full day Session on June 3rd (if approved) 11am to 9 pm to add a fundraising boost to the series and to incorporate comedy and dance segments on an experimental basis. The Sessions board will forgo the September back-to-school session to remain at seven days of fine entertainment featuring great local musicians sharing the stage with national and international superb performers. The Sessions benefit seven non-profit groups doing effective and community building work on a citywide basis. Last year's partner groups were Centro Hispano; The Urban League; The Omega School; WORT-FM; The River Alliance of Wisconsin; The Literacy Network and The Stoughton Opera House Friends Association. Common Wealth Development Corporation serves as our host agency. The designated partner of the day and staff joins with the audience to stack chairs and clean-up after each show to maintain our beautiful park. We look forward to teaming with the Madison Parks Dept. once again this summer.
