

Hello,

We are doing a science project for school involving tracking deer and other animals via trail cameras. We would like permission to set up a few trail cameras in the woods in Glenwood children's park to see what wildlife there is. We would leave the cameras up for a few days and then collect them and sort through the data. We don't think it would disturb people or animals in the park.

Sincerely,

Gillian Hankel and Claire Lesnjak