Comprehensive Plan, Culture & Character (2018)

- Strategy 3, Create safe and affirming community spaces that bring people together and provide social outlets for underrepresented groups.
  - Engage artists and talent to find positive ways for the City to improve its support of concerts, events, and gatherings, including encouraging music venues for a wider range of audiences.
- Strategy 4, Balance the concentration of cultural and entertainment venues between the downtown and other areas of the city.
  - Promote cultural and music events in diverse neighborhoods where the whole community is welcome.
  - Develop a streamlined protocol to set up temporary spaces for smaller events.

Task Force on Equity in Music and Entertainment (2019)

This Plan includes 31 recommendations that aim to increase access to Hip Hop and all genres of music, build our music infrastructure, and support artists. Based on these recommendations, an Economic Impact Analysis and Music Recovery Framework were completed in 2022.

Downtown Plan (2012)

- Recommendation 211: Enhance the existing pedestrian-friendly environment that includes opportunities for outdoor cafes and places for spontaneous street performance within a well-designed streetscape.
- *Recommendation 215: Promote private/public cooperation for the use of public open spaces and facilities for a diverse array of festivals, street fairs, performances, special events and exhibits.
- Objective 8.3: Provide a wide variety of cultural experiences for a diverse population by clustering and connecting arts, cultural, and entertainment venues and strengthen the arts, culture, and entertainment corridor that runs from the UW campus, up State Street to the Capitol Square area.

Cultural Plan (2013)

- Engage creative sector resources in defining place and identity
  - *Goal 10. The ALRC should continue its discussion with input from the MPD, City Attorney, Nightclub Owners, Musicians, Performers, and music promoters concerning licensing structures, fees, and public safety practices.
  - *Goal 16. The creative Coalition should convene discussions among educational, non-profit and commercial music venues, musicians and promoters to explore ways to grow and diversify the live music audience.

"How Music Drives Social & Economic Growth In Cities"

Creating The Most Ideal, Equitable And Prosperous City In The World Using Music And Culture

Welcome to the Huntsville Music Cities Convention programme. Below you'll discover the preview of all of the sessions that we're getting ready for the event. A complete schedule with all the details will follow shortly.

The theme of the conference is "How Music Drives Social & Economic Growth In Cities: Creating The Most Ideal, Equitable And Prosperous City In The World Using Music And Culture" which will be explored through sub-themes like:

- The role of music and culture in urban development, zoning, regulation, investment, real estate, planning.
- Economic, social and environmental impact of your music ecosystem: music, sustainability, ESG & social value.
- The best of the best of music & cultural policies in cities. How do we get there?

Tyler Brunzell | Madison, Wisconsin

Creative Strategy Coordinator, Greater Madison Music City

Tyler Brunzell is a creative professional whose work is rooted in hip-hop and its culture of self-expression and community. After discovering his passion for music and digital arts in high school, he spent two years as a high school paraprofessional assisting with hip-hop workshops. An emcee, Brunzell became deeply involved in Madison's independent music scene, writing and recording as a solo artist, as half of the duo Homemade, and as a co-founder of Supa Friends. Supa Friends is a hip-hop group that hosted open mics and showcases, spotlighting and sharing the stage with a variety of local artists. A self-taught graphic designer, Brunzell creates event flyers and websites and assists with audio and video podcast production at Media 22, a local multimedia company. In 2021, Brunzell joined Urban Community Arts Network, a nonprofit that advocates for equity in Madison's music ecosystem. He has held roles including middle school teaching artist, administrative support, and project manager. Currently, as creative strategy coordinator for Greater Madison Music City, a collective impact project led by Urban Community Arts Network, Brunzell leads initiatives to position music as a key driver of tourism in Madison.
