Dear Alder Evers and Members of the Alcohol License Review Committee,

I received a very thoughtful email from Sukh Bharya.

I withdraw my reservations about the casino. They have clarified their business plan, and I do not believe there is any intent to expand into that realm.

I also find their care and interest in the community to be genuine and exactly what the city and neighbors should look for in our businesses. Invested, caring, dedicated to making the entire community - not just their business - better.

I maintain my reservations about alcohol sales close to Brittingham Park. We have had major problems with consumption in Brittingham Park over the years; for this reason, it was one of the earliest alcohol free parks in the City. I believe providers of alcohol in or near Brittingham Park need to be accountable. The only way that seems possible is if the alcohol is consumed onsite.

I want to thank Sukh Bharya for their communication and dedication to the neighborhood and community.

Thank you all for your consideration in this matter.

Tyler Leeper
