67	I learned to play golf at Yahara Hills over 40 years ago. I shot my best 9-hole score there. It is very important to me that this golf facility be preserved and maintained / upgraded in the future by the City of Madison. If Yahara Hills is abandoned by the City as a golf course, or downsized in any way, I pledge that I will never spend a dime on City golf again.	3/28/2020 2:50 PM

95	Snack and beverage cart. Handled correctly it could turn a big profit. Many times there are over 100 potential customers on each course. The mobile store could be selling hats, visors, tees, beverage, sandwiches, snacks, gps devices, but instead on a busy day there's not even a cart out. Seems a really low priority.	3/28/2020 12:07 PM
96	Golf courses are extremely important to Madison. Who would want to move here if there are hardly any public courses. Young and older people can't afford to golf at most of the private ones. And Odana is almost impossible to play unless at times you do'nt or can't play. Close one 18hole course at Yahara and keep the rest open. I think golf courses should be subsidized some just like the parks and bike trails.	3/28/2020 11:57 AM

101	Glenway should not change to anything other than a golf course. It offers a less expensive option for students, and an intermediate length to accommodate juniors and those who aren't ready for a regulation size course. It doesn't need to make a bunch of profit to serve an important purpose. People utilize the park year-round already, no need to further degrade the golf experience to accomplish this. I look forward to taking my son to Glenway to golf throughout his childhood.	3/28/2020 11:32 AM

Municipal Golf in Madison Parks

134	High quality bunkers (what Madison courses struggle with)	3/28/2020 10:00 AM
135	Close proximity to get a round in and ability to get a tee time on relatively short notice are really important to me.	3/28/2020 9:59 AM
136	senior and other special discounts	3/28/2020 9:55 AM
137	Having local, community-funded golf courses is not a "luxury" it's one the only ways a large group of people have to interact and enjoy the outdoors. Some of us are not at an age where hiking is possible and I don't want to go to the over crowded farmers market and get run into by people who are oblivious to anyone else. I find it highly disturbing closing the courses is even an option when they only represent a fraction of a percent of the 170Million budget, but I'm not surprised.	3/28/2020 9:55 AM
138	Avoid thick roughs and narrow fairways. That will improve pace of play.	3/28/2020 9:53 AM
139	Ease/efficiency of getting a t time and checking in.	3/28/2020 9:51 AM
140	First tee and high school golfers need yahara and monona open	3/28/2020 9:50 AM
141	Having golf courses in town makes it possible to golf.	3/28/2020 9:47 AM
142	Ease of making reservations	3/28/2020 9:47 AM
143	All courses need to stay open Good for exercise and avoid virus	3/28/2020 9:46 AM
144	I'm a new golfer and can't go through holes as quickly as many of the more experienced guests. It would be useful if there were times of days when tee times were spread out more or maybe no carts or something else to that effect to slow down the game a bit during certain periods.	3/28/2020 9:46 AM
145	Speed of play	3/28/2020 9:42 AM
146	The attitude of the golfers. I have found in general many golfers at Odana tend to be very arrogant to the degree that I prefer not to play the course.	3/28/2020 9:38 AM
147	Course drains rapidly from rain events	3/28/2020 9:37 AM

155	Other = general attitude of other golfers. Being able to play in a reasonable time is important, but so is not having people hit the ball too soon behind you constantly pushing you to go faster when many times you can't because the course is full and you're waiting on the group in front. I've been golfing a few years now and have generally found the lack of patience to be worse at city courses. While the conditions at Yahara aren't the best, I drive from the west side to golf there because it's easier to get on and the other golfers are generally more polite either letting me play through or not hitting too soon if I'm waiting on groups in front of me.	3/28/2020 9:22 AM

270	The course conditions at yahara last year were not very good. The west course is harder for them to keep in good condition because it stays wet longer than the east so you cant always mow when it is needed. Lots of pot holes on both the east and west course at yahara.	3/9/2020 11:47 AM
271	2016 Annual Report was the last time profitability of specific course was shared with public. These were NOT audited financials. They were Unaudited Managerial Analysis. Shouldn't we have audited financials before considering closing a great course like Monona? Monona shares alot of expense with Yahara. Monona should be a profitable course with no capital improvements. More attention should be given to run Monona like Odana. Focus on customer and value added ways to raise revenue. Focus on Food & Beverage, on course sales, increase cart revenues, etc. Also, Increase value added revenues with current leagues and First Tee participants and families. I recommend secret shoppers (golfers) at Monona and Odana. Compare and contrast the service and product offerings at these courses. The staff at both courses are very good, but the differences in service and products offered are significant. Last observation is length of rough. Monona's rough is significantly longer than Glenway and Odana! This details definitely impacts "word of mouth" business. Golfers do not expect perfect maintenance, but they also do not want to play a course that has poorly maintained rough. The "Secret" golfer could review course conditions. Shannon is an excellent greenskeeper, but needs additional resources to cut the grass to reach minimal expectations. I visit Odana to chip and putt frequently. I do this to evaluate the differences of the 2 courses. It would be a shame to close a beautiful course like Monona. This course should be profitable with very little effort. Just a little attention and strategy. Thank you for sharing your time on the Task Force. Please remember that Yahara Hills has NEVER been a great golf course. I can't imagine investing millions into a course that won't be that great after completion of the project. Seems like a high risk endeavor. Many 18 hole golf courses are struggling. Why would Yahara be any different? If holes need to be closed, I would close 36 at Yahara. Last question - Why are Madison golf parks treated differently than Warner, Olin, Olbrich, Elver Parks? Don't we spend (lose) about $15 million/year on these parks?	3/9/2020 11:36 AM

290	Monona is the most aesthetically pleasing course, and most playable for people both older, and youngsters starting out. Neither too short (Glenway) or too wide open and subject to poor layout and bad drainage (Yahara). Odana is often too crowded, and Yahara is a long drive.	3/6/2020 12:50 PM

It tells you to respect for your playing companions and the environment. It promotes good citizenship. It enlivens an appreciation for nature's beauty and encourages healthy lifestyles. It should be promoted and encouraged throughout our schools and our wonderful Madison communities. Dismissing and disabusing the multi-faceted benefits golf provides will do grievous harm to our great city. Please, for the good of all Madisonians and all of our posterity, I beg of you, don't hurt golf, help it.	3/6/2020 11:57 AM

There has be 9 to 18 holes that are available to play even when the remainder of the course is wet.
