The Task Force discussed a range of possible recommendations TFOGS could make to the Common Council and instructed staff to list the following questions on the October 26, 2018 agenda.

- a. Whether the Task Force on the Structure of City Government should recommend that the City retain the mayoral form of executive or switch to the city manager or commission form.
- b. What, if any, recommendations should the Task Force on the Structure of City Government make regarding whether the mayor or president of the common council chairs meetings of the Common Council?
- c. What, if any, recommendations should the Task Force on the Structure of City Government make regarding whether the mayor's veto power should be expanded (e.g., line item veto), restricted, or remain the same?
- d. What, if any, recommendations should the Task Force on the Structure of City Government make regarding whether the Madison should become a first-class city?
