I've been serving as an advisor to Madison-Obihiro Sister Cities, Inc for more than a year, and also have been involved in Mental Health exchanges, which has been contributing so much to the national ~~policy~~ policy and law restructure for the mentally ill in Japan. So I would like you to realize that Sister Cities program involve not only cultural exchanges but also medical, educational, social justice, science, and business areas.

Also what makes Madison unique and interesting?

It's ~~diversity~~ diversity, different restaurants from all over the countries, diversity, students from abroad, ~~the~~ world class businesses backed by the university's technology. That kind of colorful characteristics of Madison can be only enhanced by the city supporting the Sister Cities programs, not diminishing anything.
