

MADISON TRUST

for Historic Preservation

Jennifer Gurske, Program & Technology
Manager

---

Image: Chazen Museum of Art, 2012 Historic Preservation Award, Compatible New Construction

Our Story

The Madison Trust for Historic Preservation was founded in 1974 in the wake of two events that affected prominent historic places:

- The demolition of the Gilman Street home of William F. Vilas, replaced by a modern commercial building in the middle of what is now the Mansion Hill Historic District.
- The 1971 demolition of the Mapleside farmhouse on University Avenue, replaced by a Burger King restaurant.

Image: Suhr Building, 2013 Historic Preservation Award, Commercial Restoration

Committees

---

Advocacy

Formulate & assert positions while engaging in activities that further the protection of historic resources

Development

Oversee and implement development and fundraising activities

Governance

Provide strategic support and policy oversight

Community Education

Create learning opportunities & curate educational resources in the broader Madison area

Events

Plan and implement special events & tours highlighting historic resources

Tours

Plan and coordinate the Historic Architecture Walking Tours

Upcoming Programs & Events

Checking In: Hotels, Camps, and Motor Inns

March 9 at 7:00 p.m.

---

Historic Paint Program - Online

April 6 at 7:00 p.m.

---

Historic Paint Program - In-Person Class

April 9 at 1:00 p.m. (member only)

---

Historic Preservation Awards

May 18 at 6:00 p.m. at The Tinsmith

---

Historic Architecture Walking Tours

May 28 - September 24

Image: Garver Feed Mill, 2020 Historic Preservation Award, Adaptive Reuse

Photographs

Slides, printed photos and electronic photos on CDs of buildings, events and tours

Parade of Homes

Parade of Homes booklets from 1952 on were donated to the Madison Trust

Past Awards

Records of the Historic Preservation Awards from 1989 to today

Digitizing Our Archives

madisonpreservation.org

Image: The Tinsmith, 2021 Historic Preservation Award, Adaptive Reuse

