Good Evening:

I am a disabled person who is currently eligible for Paratransit.

Will I need to be recertified to be able to pay lower fares using the SmartCard?

Also, will we be able to reload our card using our personal PC's?

I like the "Capping" feature. I believe it will help people budget for their commutes.

Also, I like the idea that people can still use cash to board non BRT routes, and get passes at the BRT transfer stations.

When I heard that Metro was no longer going to accept cash on the busses, I was concerned about how visitors to the Madison area would be able to ride the bus.

Thank you.
