

Madison Out-of-School Time - MOST
October 18, 2014 Town Hall Meeting
Madison, Wisconsin
Location: Boys & Girls Club Allied Drive
Draft Agenda

- Goals:
- 1) Share information regarding the MOST programs and activities survey and allow people to vote on recommendations for MOST focus
 - 2) Learn about successful models family and youth community organizing for better youth outcomes
 - 3) Begin to conceive and craft what mechanisms Madison needs to put in place in order to support family and youth engagement and power.

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 10:30 – 11:00 a.m. | Check-in & snacks |
| 11:00 - 11:10 a.m. | Welcome remarks by Mayor Soglin, Superintendent Cheatham and the County Executive (?) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mayor, Superintendent and County Executive describe the work done so far to build MOST and how critical they believe it is to engage the community, especially families and youth. |
| 11:10 – 11:30 | Dept. of Education: National Landscape of family and youth engagement? However, we have flexibility with this topic based on who is coming. |
| 11:30 - 11:40 a.m. | Welcome remarks from Family & Youth Engagement Co-facilitators <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Explain why want to create a permanent mechanism for family and youth voice and power.• Describe goals and logistics for the day |
| 11:40 – 12:00 p.m. | Presentation by Madison Out-of-School Time (share results of the OST programs and activities survey) |
| 12:00-12:30 p.m. | Presentation the Annenberg Institute – invited Richard Gray. Presentation explores what made it possible for groups to be successful regarding community organizing for education and improved youth outcomes. What infrastructure was built? What was key to the cities' success? What would they do differently?) |
| 12:30 – 1:30 p.m. | Lunch family style with table discussion (Dept. of Ed & NLC facilitate discussion)The goal of the conversation is to get them to think about these questions and begin to conceive of what type of infrastructure would work within Madison.
3 key questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What will successful family and youth engagement look like in Madison?• What we should implement in Madison?• What kind of support will we need in place in order to make it successful? (Organized so there are people from each session at every table – with guests spread-out) |
| 1:30 – 1:50 p.m. | Large Group Share-out (Dept. of Ed or NLC facilitates) |

1:50-2:00 p.m. Closing remarks by Mayor Paul Soglin, Superintendent Jennifer Cheatham,
County Executive Parisi and Jennifer Lord, MOST Coordinator
- Frames what the city and school district hope for and the next steps for MOST

2:00 - 2:15 p.m. Networking