Hello,

Please put me down as being against parking increases in the two-tiered ramps, the costs going from $8.00 to $10.00 or $15.00. In our inflationary times any additions to any costs are burdensome. And I really worry about restaurants and shops (and Farmer's Market) downtown as well as the venues that are served by the parking ramps. It's SO expensive to eat out, retail is expensive, coffee is expensive.

Thinking that people would have to pay even more to park downtown and towards the East side would give me pause in terms of patronizing those various establishments. The loss of the Lake St. Parking Ramp has been horrid enough this spring and summer- please don't add even more parking costs to wherever one may finally find parking. Thank you.
