I attempted to register to speak and to call in to speak on this topic but the tech didn't work.

It's bad enough that those of us reliant on transit are stuck with Saturday only service for an indeterminate amount of time but now we're detoured off of state street so that a large gathering of people (aka restaurants with sidewalk service during Covid! Which is it - rotten bus service because of Covid or Covid isn't such a threat that businesses can create one big outdoor cafe?
