Funding (and partnerships with outside organizations to fund) Reach Out and Read Supv. Jenni Dye

Finding ways to replicate a Reach Out and Read model other spaces we already interface with families - WIC, Joining Forces for Families, Leopold ECI etc. Incorporate an element of how important it is to read with your child, information about using library systems, etc., into conversations already occurring. Supv. Jenni Dye

An interagency team modeled after the Rock County Interagency Team, which brings districts, law enforcement/DA, human services all to the table to share information and identify potential problems early on (i.e., if a child is having small troubles in multiple areas, sharing information may result in earlier intervention before these problems become larger).
