To whom it may concern,

I'm writing to you today as a friend of Sasha Rosen. I worked with Sasha at Camp Shalom for a number of years. His presence was a gift to the campers and counselors who were lucky enough to know him. Sasha was goofy and fun; he brought magic to each camp day. He was known as a fantastic fisherman among our camp family, as well as 'Shabatman,' a character he played on Fridays to signify the beginning of Shabbat, while teaching campers our lesson of the week. Sasha's loss has been felt deeply by this community and will be felt throughout the summer, as we learn to navigate the spaces he made so special.

The loss of Sasha is a tragedy and also completely preventable. Increased investment in traffic signals and addressing speeding issues on Park St. and across our community can make sure this never happens again to another family. As a leader, I'm asking you today for visible and impactful advocacy in the fight for safer streets.

Sincerely,
Molly Aton, Madison Resident
