51253 Sister City Program Reports April 2018

Since the last monthly meeting Madison-Obihiro Sister Cities, Inc. (MOSC) had a delegation of 6 people come to Madison from March 26-29, 2018 to study senior care facilities. The delegation was comprised of 1 doctor, 1 dentist, 2 nurses, 1 nursing supervisor and 1 translator/interpreter. They visited the following sites: Attic Angels, Independent Living Services, Dane County Badger Prairie, met with county officials to learn about senior care. They toured the UW medical facilities as well as meeting a variety of MOSC board members.

MOSC will be hosting a high school school delegation to Obihiro & Tokyo from July 11-25. In addition to the tour, MOSC is hosting a essay contest for those interested in the high school tour to assist them with their expenses. In addition, Culver's will help sponsor a Scoopie night on May 15th where Culver's will donate 10% of their profits to the high school group.

MOSC also was successful in securing a sponsor for the Celebrate Madison Sister Cities Event on April 14th at MATC. Madison Gas & Electric gave a sponsorship of $500. In addition, MOSC paid for 3. Board members to attend the event. (Gail Sterkel, Takako Nakakubo, Karen Milstein)

Jo Oyama-Miller also participated in the WORT broadcast with Jan Miyazaki along with Diane Farsetta and Charles James to promote the Celebrate Event. It went very well

Upcoming events will be an mental health delegation which will come in the fall as well as MOSC's 11th student exchange from Obihiro.
