Dear Chair Kovich:

I'm writing to you today as a friend and neighbor of Nadya and Sasha Rosen. Sasha and my youngest son Oliver grew up together and were just about to start a band before Sasha left for college. The loss of Sasha is an utter tragedy and was also completely preventable. Ever since our family moved to our home on Lakeside Street 18 years ago, I have been afraid to walk on Park St because of speeding and inattentive driving. Sasha's death has only deepened this fear. Increased investment in traffic signals and addressing speeding issues on Park St. and across our community can make sure this never happens again to another family. As a leader, I'm asking you today for visible and impactful advocacy in the fight for safer streets.

Sincerely,
Sage Goellner

Sincerely,

YOUR NAME
