2019 Suffrage Walk – 6/23/19

Capitol Square

If there are marchers on the city side of the square, they will stay on the sidewalk and obey any traffic signals.

2019 Suffrage Walk – Emergency Plan

To prevent emergency situations, the organizing team will:

1. Purchase an Event Insurance policy that protects event organizers from liability in the event of injury or harm to a participant.
2. Secure all necessary permits from the City of Evanston to ensure the Walk is sanctioned and recognized by public authorities.
3. Assign ample volunteer event staff to all phases of the event, including Set-Up, Assembly, Walk, Finish/Speaking and Clean-Up
4. Insuring all event volunteers have cell phone access and a triage list of phone numbers for event organizers and emergency services (i.e. police, EMT, etc).
5. Work with Madison Policy to ensure roads are closed and monitoring during the Walk portion of the event, which we expect to occur from 12:00 noon on June 9, 2019 to 1:00 pm on June 9, 2019.
6. Provide participants at the assembly area with a one-page information sheet that details actions they can take in the event of an emergency, such as who to call.

In the event of an emergency, the organizing team will train volunteers to:

1. Check – Check with event participants to gather and record details
2. Call – Immediately call professional emergency support to the scene
3. Care – Provide support to participants to make sure they can leave the emergency seen and retreat to a safe location.
