In addition, at its option, Buyer may elect to obtain a current survey of the Real Property, prepared and certified by a registered land surveyor, reasonably satisfactory to Buyer, who is licensed in the jurisdiction in which the Real Property is located (the "New Survey"). The Title Evidence consisting of the Commitment, Existing Survey and, if Buyer elects to obtain one, the New Survey, shall be deemed received by Buyer for purposes of Section 6.2 only when a Commitment, Existing Survey and the New Survey, if obtained, conforming to the foregoing requirements have all been received by Buyer.

6.2 Buyer's Objections and Requirements. Buyer shall be allowed until the fifteenth (15th) business day after Buyer's receipt of the last of the Title Evidence (the "Title Objection Date"), to examine the same and make any objections to the form and/or content of the thereof. Any objections not made on or before the Title Objection Date shall be deemed to be waived by Buyer and shall then constitute Permitted Exceptions. Buyer's objections may include additional requirements with regard to the Title Evidence based upon its initial review of the same, including requiring (a) satisfaction of Title Company's requirement as set forth in the commitment, (b) deletion of all the so-called "standard exceptions" to coverage, (c) affirmative insurance of any easements appurtenant to the Real Property, (d) reasonable affirmative title insurance endorsements (including comprehensive, zoning, access, subdivision, contiguity and survey accuracy) with respect to the Real Property if available in the jurisdiction in which the Real Property is located, and (e) revisions to the Title Evidence as to any matters reasonably warranting additional investigation, affirmative insurance and/or certification. Buyer shall have the continuing right to object in writing to the Title Evidence if and as the same may be revised or endorsed by the Title Company at any time; provided that any such objection by Buyer shall be delivered to Seller within ten (10) business days after the later of Buyer's receipt of the revised or endorsed Title Evidence from the Title Company or the Title Objection Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Buyer hereby objects to all liens evidencing monetary encumbrances (other than liens for non-delinquent real estate taxes, supplemental taxes and assessments), and Seller agrees to cause all such liens to be eliminated, at Seller's sole cost, on or prior to Closing.

Pending such cure, the Closing shall be postponed to the extent necessary to accommodate such time period; provided however, Seller shall not be allowed any additional time beyond the originally scheduled Closing Date to fully pay, discharge, and satisfy any mortgage, judgment or other monetary lien. Upon such cure, the Closing shall be held on the later of (a) the originally scheduled Closing Date, and (b) the first business day occurring ten (10) days after the date such cure is completed. If such cure is not completed within the thirty (30) day period, Buyer shall have the option to do any of the following:
