Good evening.

When considering whether or not to require City of Madison Police officers to wear bodycams please have a look at these few instances (Graphic language and images).

There also need to be strict rules around what the footage can be used for and some sort of education to the public about possible negative effects. Colorado seems to be on the right track.

People have died on these streets and there has been one version of the events. I personally hope that changes. People are also sitting for 'crimes' that may have been exaggerated.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
