Dear Ms. Stouder,

I wanted to express how much I have appreciated the Southwest Farmers Market this year. I'm thrilled to be able to buy fresh, locally grown produce right here in my neighborhood. I rarely go to other farmers markets because it's not worth the trouble and time with 3 kids along. But this one is very convenient, and also small enough that faces become familiar and I get to know the farmers and my neighbors a bit. I hope it can continue to operate in the future!
