Ken,

The folks at UW Health thought it was necessary to clarify their arrangement with our firm in light of statements made by one of our competitors. Please call if you have any questions.

Subject: UWMF Response to Inquiries about Union Corners

In response to internal inquiries and inquiries made in response to representations made within the context of the Union Corners Development presentations made on August 29, 2012, all should be advised that UWMF is working with Gorman & Company, Inc. relative to its development plans for the site. UWMF is not working with any other developers at this time nor has there been any interviews or meetings with other developers about our needs at this site and program to date.
