Please preserve this historic landmark building. It's a beautiful and interesting part of Madison history that we should not forget. If we destroy the building then we are destroying our own history and the memory will be lost. Please don't destroy what makes Madison, individual and unique. Gwen Kelly

Madison ~~is a~~ ~~city~~ is a unique city with a rich history that is displayed through ~~the~~ ^{its} many beautiful, diverse, eclectic buildings. The Schubert "Silver Dollar" Building is an example of the kind of historic building that separates Madison from generic-town USA. Please don't demolish it !!!

The Schubert "Silver Dollar" building should be preserved as a historic landmark. Do we really want all of downtown to look like the Overture Center? Diversity - whether cultural or architectural - is what Madison is all about!

Mr. Kronenberg's Queen Anne-style architecture of the original Sines Dollor is worth preservation. All great cities - national & global - have preserved & renovated buildings enhancing their urban landscape. The buildings also preserve the urban love. Destroy the building, kill the history simple.

Please landmark the Schubert Building. It is an attractive, interesting historic building with elements that we don't see much in Madison such as the prism glass. It also is an important part of Madison's saloon history.

Thank you
Michelle Martin

Not only is the Schubert Building an exemplary example of Queen Anne commercial architecture and a significant piece of Madison cultural and political history, it would make a wonderful museum on Prohibition and Temperance!

Building a landmark!
