Sec. 37-115. - Contributing to truancy.

Sec. 37-116. - Allowing truancy.

Secs. 37-117—37-145. - Reserved.

Sec. 37-114. - Attendance at school.

No parent, guardian or other person 18 years or older shall knowingly allow a child between the ages of six and less than 18, who is under the parent or guardian's control to absent the child's self from attendance at school without an acceptable excuse.

Sec. 37-115. - Contributing to truancy.

No person 17 or older, by an act of omission, shall knowingly encourage or contribute to the truancy or habitual truancy of a child. An act or omission contributes to the truancy or habitual truancy of a child, whether or not the child is so adjudged, if the natural and probable consequences of that act of omission would be to cause the child to be truant.

Sec. 37-116. - Allowing truancy.

Any parent, guardian or other adult who knowingly allows a child to absent the child's self from attendance at school without an acceptable excuse shall be in violation of this article.
