How does the city's budget debt look from companies with loans?

I have been trying to get it through to the city that this particular piece of property would better make a conservation park, or similar, so that other animals may be present, some plantings, a fence, and possibly some city gardens along the back side. Not much of an expenditure. The purpose is that blight will certainly cause danger for pedestrians due to the airports flight path, and, bikes and autos are also at risk. I'd like involvements.
