

This applicant also runs a liquor store in Verona...I checked with Verona PD and they have had no issues or concerns with operation of her business.

She has complied with all of the components of the application process for a Madison license.

There is a PDQ in the same strip mall with a liquor license.

I am comfortable granting the license...