City of Madison | Department of Transportation

Transportation Demand Management (TDM) Plan

TDM is the use of strategies to increase transportation system efficiency and encourage transportation options to reduce the number and length of single-occupancy vehicle (SOV) trips. The City of Madison's TDM Ordinance requires certain development projects to implement measures that improve mobility, reduce congestion, and lower vehicle emissions.

The purpose of the TDM Plan is to:
- Determine the applicability of the TDM Ordinance to the development project (Step 1)
- Establish a required number of TDM points for the project, if it is subject to TDM Ordinance requirements (Step 1)
- Select TDM measures to implement (Step 2)
- Demonstrate compliance with the TDM Ordinance by meeting TDM point requirements (Step 2)
