Re: Letter of Adjacency Review for 210 S Pinckney Street

At its meeting on July 9, 2018, the Landmarks Commission reviewed, in accordance with the provisions of the Zoning code related to development adjacent to a landmark, the plans to alter the previous development that was reviewed for 210 S Pinckney Street. The Landmarks Commission found that the proposed development was not so large or visually intrusive as to adversely affect the historic character and integrity of the adjoining landmark. The Commission also had a preference for Option B.
