Inactive Volunteer Report for 2013

82 Inactive Volunteers for 2013; 260 Active Volunteers Begin 2014

Over the course of 2013, volunteers who no longer had interest or were unable to volunteer at the Madison Senior Center were identified.

There are many reasons for inactivity: age no longer allows the level of activity desired, students graduate or schedules/interests change, other opportunities emerge, death or moves.

The following accounts for those volunteers who were designated "inactive".*

1 Deceased

2 Health

3 Completed Community Service

4 Moved

8 Reasons could not be determine

9 Schedule changed

16 students – schedule changed or moved on to other opportunities

39 not interested, became involved with other activities – job, grandchildren, other interests

* An 18 month "rolling look-back" is undertaken every month. Volunteers who have not volunteered and staff do not know of their circumstance are contacted to determine their wishes to continue on as volunteers. Any volunteer who desires to continue being considered for volunteer opportunities at MSC are kept on the list. Any contact or change of service interest is updated at that time.

Also, there are some circumstances where volunteers who have disengaged from the Senior Center at a previous time are welcomed back (if their initial service was satisfactory) because their interest and circumstance has changed to allow re-engagement. These volunteers are reactivated.
