

Traffic Safety Quiz
2005 Miscellaneous laws

(1) Under each of the following situations, who needs to yield?

	Driver Yields To Pedestrian	Pedestrian Yields To Driver	Pedestrian Cannot Cross
a. Pedestrian faces a Red light, but there are no pedestrian signals	A	B	C
b. Pedestrian faces a solid Don't Walk/red hand signal	A	B	C
c. Pedestrian faces a flashing Don't Walk/red hand signal	A	B	C
d. Pedestrian is crossing mid-block and there is no marked crosswalk	A	B	C
e. Pedestrian is crossing at an intersection where the driver has a stop sign	A	B	C
f. Pedestrian is crossing at an intersection where a driver does not have a stop sign	A	B	C

(2) At what point is it still okay to begin crossing a street with pedestrian signals? (Check all that apply)

- a. When the Walk or white walking person signal is lit
- b. When the Don't Walk/red hand signal is flashing
- c. When the Don't Walk/red hand signal is solid

(4) When stopping for a stop sign you must stop:

- a. At a place where you can see on-coming traffic, then proceed when clear.
- b. Prior to the stop line, or, if no stop line, prior to the crosswalk. If no clearly painted stop line or crosswalk are present, stop before entering the intersection.
- c. It's ok to slow down until almost stopped, and then continue on if there is no traffic and it's safe to do so.

(5) When is it legal to stop and unload a passenger in a No Stopping, Standing, or Parking Zone?

- a. When the driver does not exit vehicle and it only takes less than a minute for the passenger to get out of the car.
- b. When the vehicle's engine is running and the emergency flashers are engaged.
- c. If the vehicle is pulled all the way over to the curb so it is not impeding traffic.
- d. All of the above.
- e. None of the above.

(6) If there are two lanes to turn right, it is legal for a vehicle to turn right during a red signal from either lane.

- True
- False

(7) Where is it legal to make a "y" or "u"-turn? (Chose all that apply)

- a. Mid-block in a residential district.
- b. Mid-block in a business district.
- c. At a controlled (Red/Yellow/Green signal) intersection as long as it is not posted with a sign prohibiting the u-turn.

d. At any uncontrolled intersection.

(8) When is it legal for a pedestrian to cross a street mid-block?

- a. Never
- b. When there is enough room for cars to slow down for them
- c. When they do not impede traffic

(9) Bicyclists must obey the same traffic laws as other vehicles?

- True
- False

(10) Where is it legal to load or unload passengers? (Chose all that apply)

- a. Within any legal parking place
- b. Within an area posted "Loading Zone"
- c. In an area posted "No Parking"
- d. In an area posted "No Stopping, Standing or Parking"
- e. All of the above

You are driving your vehicle and entered an intersection when the traffic signal light is yellow. Can you be issued a traffic citation for a traffic law violation?

- a. Yes
- b. No

When a motorist is traveling downhill at a grade of 10% or more, police are to excuse all speeding violations less than 10 mph over the posted speed limit.

- a. True
- b. False

(3) In your opinion, what is the cause for most vehicle/pedestrian crashes? (Check all that apply)

- a. The driver of the vehicle wasn't paying attention
- b. The driver of the vehicle wasn't obeying the traffic signs or signals
- c. The driver of the vehicle wasn't yielding to the pedestrian
- d. The driver didn't see the pedestrian
- e. The pedestrian wasn't paying attention
- f. The pedestrian suddenly stepped out into the street
- g. The pedestrian wasn't obeying the traffic signals
- h. The pedestrian wasn't yielding to traffic while outside an appropriate crosswalk
- i. Other _____