

Log In Search

7 Day Forecast Video Forecast Alerts
Radar More Weather School Closings

MADISON 80°

HOME NEWS WEATHER SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT HEALTH AT HOME MONEY OBITS MADISON MAGAZINE
LOCAL NEWS NATION & WORLD POLITICS EDUCATION NEWS 3 LINKS

FAQ: WISC-TV viewers on Dish could be affected by contract negotiations

Negotiation Update: Dish refused our most recent offer to extend negotiations and it now appears we will be removed from the Dish system on 11 p.m. Thursday.

*TPC 08.12.15
ITEM 7.2.
HANDOUT*

Court upholds Madison prohibition on guns on buses

Appeals court upholds Madison regulation banning guns on buses

Published On: Aug 06 2015 12:36:28 PM CDT | Updated On: Aug 06 2015 01:06:43 PM CDT

Jason Morrison/Freelimages.com

MADISON, Wis. -A state appeals court said people can't carry guns on Madison city buses.

RELATED CONTENT

Man reportedly involved in roadside argument flees from deputies

State lawmakers to consider merger of UW, technical colleges

Tony Robinson's mom: Family to announce lawsuit against city, officer

6 months in jail for man who took nude photos of ex-girlfriend

Wisconsin Carry, a gun rights group, had filed a lawsuit last year alleging the Madison Transit and Parking Commission rule prohibiting weapons on buses can't stand in the face of a state law that bars political subdivisions from enact ordinances or resolutions regulating the ownership and possession of firearms that are more restrictive than state statutes.

The 4th District Court of Appeals upheld the prohibition Thursday. The three-judge panel ruled unanimously that the ban is a rule, not an ordinance or resolution.

Wisconsin Carry's attorney, John Monroe, questioned how the transit commission can have the power to enact a regulation that the city council can't.

Copyright 2015 The Associated Press. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.

UP NEXT // Man reportedly involved in roadside argument flees from deputies