Bloedorn presented about continued progress toward the development of a food action plan.

Questions:
 - Vidaver – Will there be opportunities to connect this to the priorities from the 2023 MFPC retreat
 - o Fey – this may be a good point for discussion in January’s MFPC meeting
 - Warner – introduces himself as chair of Dane County Food Council. The engagement efforts in this process will be a huge opportunity for members of both councils to connect with our community. Encourages members to attend upcoming events as outlined in the presentation.

- Abad – What is the plan to engage with subgroups and individuals that aren't traditionally heard from?
- o Bloedorn – this is still being developed but the consumer engagement lead is working heavily on coordinating sessions to engage with individuals that aren't typically engaged in these subjects
