Re: Madison Vocational School National Register of Historic Places nomination (Additional Documentation and Boundary Decrease)
211 N Carroll Street

The City of Madison Landmarks Commission was pleased to review the nomination amendment for the Madison Vocational School at its 26 June 2023 meeting and would like to support the proposal to decrease the boundary with the additional documentation provided.

The submittal makes a successful case that the Madison Vocational School has a separate history on its own historic lot rather than a boundary that encompasses the entire city block. This building is a significant part of our downtown cityscape and we celebrate its preservation and adaptive reuse.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide comments.

Sincerely,

Katherine Kaliszewski
