Community based project to pay homage to First responders during the COVID pandemic. Mural was a collaboration between Downtown Phoenix Inc. The building owners and myself. Art uniforms donated the 2 walls (2nd part of mural is on east wall). I donated my time, and DTPH donated the materials. Mural would have cost approx. $72,000.
Aerrod on Wall - 40 ft x 190 ft.

2. Building Bridges - What's your immigration story? - 2019/20
Lincoln Family Downtown YMCA - 150 N 1st Ave, Phoenix, Arizona 85003
Murals were created in conjunction with the students of The Other Lifelong Learning Institute at ASU downtown and the Facing Immigration class at ASU Tempe.
Aerrod on wall - 200 x 1200
$20,000

3. Malinda Mural - 2017
Ally of The Renaissance Phoenix Downtown. 1 of 2 mural commission by Downtown Phoenix Inc. The mural is paying tribute to both the hotel's legacy and the rich life of an African-American woman, Malinda "Malindy" Curtis, whose spirit is said to inhabit the ally to this day. The Hotel Adams, Phoenix's first luxury hotel, was destroyed by a fire in 1910. The Renaissance, which now stands in its place, was originally built in 1973.
Aerrod on wall - 500 x 740
$40,000

4. Public Arts Equity Project: My Rochester! Mural - 2023
School 19, Rochester NY
The mural, a translation of a collage by artist Erica Bryant, pays tribute to Anna Murray Douglass and Rochester's role as a sanctuary for those fleeing slavery. It depicts Anna Murray Douglass cooking meals for escaped enslaved individuals, symbolizing the city's multiculturalism and inclusivity. The mural also honors Rochester's vibrant culinary scene and its pivotal role in the Underground Railroad as a beacon of hope and safety for countless individuals.
Aerrod on wall - 16 x 25
$15,000.

5. Hotel Ithaca - 2024
222 South Cayuga Street • Ithaca, New York 14850
The mural was designed to incorporate elements related to hospitality, a welcoming atmosphere, and attractions in the Ithaca area. The hotel is planning to reopen in 2-3 years, and there will be double doors in the bottom center of the wall. I need to design the mural in such a way that the area where the doors will be located does not become a focal point.
Aerrod on wall
