

Legistar File No. 91848 Body Version 2

DRAFTER’S ANALYSIS: This City Attorney Revisor’s Ordinance corrects certain parts of the Madison General Ordinances (MGO), the City’s code of ordinances.

The proposed changes in this ordinance are as follows:

- Section 1.08(3) is amended to correct references to Sections of the Madison General Ordinances and perform table reformatting in particular areas.
- Section 1.08(4) is amended to correct references to Sections of the Madison General Ordinances and consolidate enforcement official authority listings.
- Section 3.12(11) is amended to remove a reference to the Community Development Division Conference Committee, repealed by ORD-25-00022.
- Section 3.30(2) is amended to remove a reference to the Equal Opportunities Commission Employment Committee, repealed by ORD-17-00114.
- Section 5.04(2) is amended following repeal of §62.13(9), Wis. Stats. in 1977.
- Section 28.097(8) is amended following renaming of committee in 2018.
- Section 33.15(2) is amended to remove references to alternate members following amendments to 33.15(2)(a) by ORD-25-00022.
- Section 33.15(4)(g) is repealed, following the repeal of the Community Development Division Conference Committee by ORD-25-00022.

The SUBSTITUTE adds an additional revision, correcting the title of Section 33.16 to match the title reflected within the section.

3. Subsection (11) entitled “Emerging Opportunities Program” of Section 3.12 entitled “Department of Planning and Community and Economic Development” of the Madison General Ordinances is amended as follows:

“(11) Emerging Opportunities Program. The Community Development Division (CDD), in concert with the Community Development Block Grant and Community Services Committees, ~~and with the final approval of the Community Development Division Conference Committee established in Sec. 33.18~~ will allocate City resources to a resident, groups of residents, and/or community organizations for projects and activities that serve prioritized issues or populations. Such allocations are generally made through structured and regularly scheduled funding processes. Emerging needs or unanticipated opportunities routinely occur throughout the calendar year that cannot be properly addressed by these funding processes. This program is created and maintained so that the City can respond to such developments in a more timely manner and seize these opportunities as they are presented and most viable. It is also intended to offer opportunities for new and nascent organizations to receive financial support provided they can demonstrate broad engagement in the development of projects or activities they propose to undertake.”

4. Subsection (2) entitled “Residence: Boards, Commissions and Committees” of Section 3.30 entitled “Qualifications—City Officers, Members of Commissions, and Employees” of the Madison General Ordinances is amended as follows:

“(2) Residence: Boards, Commissions and Committees. Each person who is or shall be eligible for appointment as a member of a City of Madison board, committee or commission shall be a resident of the City of Madison, provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to a member of or candidate for appointment to a City of Madison board, committee or commission where, in the judgment of the Mayor and two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the Common Council, the best interests of the City will be served by the appointment of a non-resident member who is particularly well qualified by reasons of education, background, and experience with Madison business concerns or other Madison-based employers and the Mayor specifies fully to the Common Council the reasons why he or she is recommending such appointment. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to persons who are employed under a joint and cooperative arrangement with Dane County, ~~nor shall it apply to appointments to the Equal Opportunities Commission Employment Committee~~ if the appointee works for a business located in Madison. Wherever in these ordinances a reference is made to a resident member of a committee, the appointment is subject to this section.

In the event that any person required to reside in the City of Madison or ceases to reside in his or her respective jurisdiction, his or her position shall be deemed vacated. Such vacancy shall be filled in the manner prescribed by law or ordinance for the original appointment of that position.”

5. Subsection (2) of Section 5.04 entitled “Salaries” of the Madison General Ordinances is amended as follows:

“(2) The salaries of members of the department shall be in lieu of all fees, percentages, and commissions; and all fees, percentages and commissions of every kind, ~~other than rewards offered for the apprehension of criminals which may be retained by the member receiving the same,~~ shall be paid into the City Treasury and applied by the Treasurer as provided in ~~Section 62.13 (9) (a) of the Wisconsin Statutes.~~”

6. Subsection (8) entitled “Review by University of Wisconsin-Madison Campus Area Committees Prior to Final Building Design Review” of Section 28.097 entitled “Campus-Institutional District” of the Madison General Ordinances is amended as follows:

“(8) Review by University of Wisconsin-Madison Campus Area Committees Committee Prior to Final Building Design Review. Prior to presenting final building design to the architectural review committee under Sub. (7) above, the University of Wisconsin-Madison shall present the final building design plans to a meeting of the Joint ~~West and Joint Southeast area review committees~~ Campus Area Committee after giving notice of the joint meeting by first class mail to the owners of record, as listed in the office of the City assessor, and occupants of multi-tenant buildings, of property in whole or in part situated within two hundred (200) feet of the boundaries of the properties affected.”

7. Subsection (2) of Section 33.15 entitled "Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Committee" of the Madison General Ordinances is amended as follows:

- "(2) (a) Membership. The Committee shall consist of nine (9) members appointed by the Mayor, subject to the approval of the Common Council. Members shall serve without compensation. Two (2) members shall be alderpersons. The other members shall be resident members, at least two of whom reside within a low- or moderate-income census tract as defined by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and the remaining residents shall be residents who through their expertise, lived experience or strong interest in the work of the Committee will represent a broad range of perspectives on issues before the Committee.
- (b) ~~Alternate Members.~~ ~~In addition to the nine (9) members, as provided in Subdivision (a) above, the Mayor shall appoint a first alternate and a second alternate member. Alternate members shall serve a term of one (1) year, and may be re-appointed. The first alternate shall act with full power when any other member of the Committee is absent or refuses to act because of a conflict of interest. The second alternate shall act only when the first alternate is absent or refuses to act, or when more than one (1) Committee member is absent or refuses to act because of a conflict of interest. Alternates may serve as the CDBG Committee representative on other City committees at any time.~~"

8. Subdivision (g) of Subsection (4) entitled "Powers and Duties" of Section 33.15 entitled "Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Committee" of the Madison General Ordinances is repealed.

9. Section 33.16 entitled "Community Services Committee" of the Madison General Ordinances is amended as follows:

"33.16 COMMUNITY SERVICES RESOURCES COMMITTEE"

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Subdivision (g) of Subsection (4) entitled "Powers and Duties" of Section 33.15 entitled "Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Committee" of the Madison General Ordinances currently reads as follows:

- "(g) The Community Development Block Grant Committee (CDBG) shall recommend to the Mayor three (3) of its regular members (not alternate members), including one alderperson, to serve as members of the Community Development Division Conference Committee. The term of each appointment shall be one year.”
