

Monona Terrace Community & Convention Center®

February 3 & 4, 2012

Welcome to Terrace Town, where 1450 Dane County elementary students present their visions for sustainable cities! These box city models reflect several months of learning how cities are planned and what makes a green community.

Terrace Town teachers develop curriculum that uses buildings and the environment to teach core subjects. Volunteer "mentors" — architects, planners, landscape architects and design professionals — also work with the students and bring their real-world perspective to the process.

Terrace Town is proudly produced by Monona Terrace in support of part of its mission to be a community gathering place.

Take a tour and look for answers to these questions!

- 👁️ What types of "green" renewable energy do you see in the Terrace Town cities?
- 👁️ How would you imagine the people living there get from place to place?
- 👁️ Can you find a balance of nature and built features in the cities?
- 👁️ Would you like to live in any of the Terrace Town communities? If so, which one?
