Dear Mayor Soglin and Common Council:

I am writing to give Catholic Charities' support to the affordable housing project being proposed by CareNet. We are asking that you uphold the Plan Commission decision. Each year we serve over 25,000 people, and many are Madison residents who are in dire need of housing that they can afford. Many of our participants work full time, but are still unable to secure appropriate housing given their income. This project will provide housing stability which in the longer term results in positive employment outcomes for our participants and also allows them to be more self-sufficient and productive members of the community.

We are hopeful that you will uphold the Plan Commission decision.

Sincerely,

Jackson Fonder
President and CEO
