Board of Park Commissioners
Kevin Briski, Madison Parks Superintendent,

Olbrich Botanical Gardens requests permission to charge a festival admission, to be determined ranging between $2-$5, for Thai Fest in 2014. The admission would be charge at the entrance of the Thai bridge and would not impact any area of the Gardens beside the Thai Garden.

Due to the fact that Thai Fest is costly to produce the ability to charge a general admission would help ensure that it could take place.

Currently, there are two proposed dates for this biennial event – Sunday, September 7 or Sunday, September 14, 2014.

Thank you for your consideration.
