Marsha,

FYI - this contract was opened on Friday. Contract will not be executed by apparent low bidder (Bachmann).

I spoke with Al Bachmann and Mike Dunn, Bachmann Construction, this morning. They misunderstood the work involved in the sawcutting contract and are not able to execute the contract. Al will send us an official letter explaining their decision along with a check for $1550 for the bid bond.

I will contact ASTI Sawing to talk with them about their methods for executing this contract. I will also discuss setting up a time with them to demonstrate their work.
