A motion was made by Kaliszewski, seconded by McLean, to recommend to the Plan Commission that the buildings at 322 W Johnson Street, 315 W Gorham Street, and 317 W Gorham Street have historic value based on architectural significance due to their revival style commercial architecture, and historic significance due to their early automotive sales history, and their status as contributing structures in an eligible National Register Historic District. The motion passed by the following vote:

Ayes: 3 - Anna Andrzejewski, Katie Kaliszewski, and David McLean

Noes: 1 - Maurice Taylor

Excused: 3 - Richard Arnesen, Betty Banks, and Arvina Martin

Commissioner Taylor recommended that the structures did not rise to the high level of significance and recommended a finding that the structures had value related to the vernacular context of Madison's built environment, but the buildings themselves were not historically, architecturally or culturally significant.

A motion was made by McLean, seconded by Kaliszewski, to recommend to the Plan Commission that the building at 341 State Street has historic value related to the cultural history of the LGBTQ community in Madison, but the building itself is not architecturally significant at this point in time.
