East Police District Forum "What does public safety mean to you?" A conversation led by Local Voices Network.

A possible quorum of the Police and Fire Commission may exist at this event.

Commissioners have been invited to participate in facilitated community conversations as an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the technology in anticipation of using the Local Voices Network tools to gather community input for the Police Chief hiring process.

Attendees need to register at: <https://lvn.org/wisconsin/register#participate>

Conversations will be led and facilitated by the Local Voices Network. These conversations will be recorded, to ensure your voices are used to inform decisions moving forward. As a participant in this conversation, you are providing consent to Cortico, the operator of the Local Voices Network, to use the recording in accordance with its mission of fostering conversations in communities and in the media that improve our understanding of one another.
